Good afternoon Shane,

Sorry to miss your call. I appreciate your efforts and yes we are fine with the response being sent by COB Friday. Any questions please let me know.

Regards,
Alyse

Alyse, I just rang and left a vm on the questionnaire deadline of today. Just notifying you we are about to send the response but it won't get out today and should leave tomorrow or Friday very latest. It's a last minute check off that I'm waiting for our officers overseas to sign off on.

Regret delay but trust you are ok with this short delay.

Regards
